

Rose Colored [Watts]

Yesterday life seemed hard
But I've softened fast
Today I'm falling
And no longer stalling
Could this be it?
At last

I've really let myself go
Yes, I've come down hard
I'm wide-awake
Cause this doesn't feel fake
I think I found her
En garde!

Chorus

The whole world's gone
It's all gone rose colored
Is it real?
If it's real
I'm recovered
And should I
And should I stutter
The words I hear
Hear when I'm fluttered
Maybe it's time
Time to say
I
love
'I love you'

Everything feels so easy
Didn't think it would Seems like it should feel
Much harder than carbon steel
Didn't see it being this good

And I'm so scared of history
Yes, my past is loud
Should I listen?
Or keep dismissing
And leave my head in the clouds

Chorus

The whole world's gone
It's all gone rose colored
Is it real?
If it's real
I'm recovered
And should I
And should I stutter
The words I hear
Hear when I'm fluttered
Maybe it's time
Time to say
I
love
'I love you'
