

Validation (Benko, Heckeler)

Got a ticket on a rocket ship, full of shit
Looking at me you wouldn't know it
It's an ego trip fueled by low self esteem
Beneath the smile is not as it seems

When I look in the mirror, do I like what I see?
Are my thoughts and feelings reality?
All I want in the world is for you to like me
Please tell me where I need to be on this journey

Welcome to the train wreck
No cover ups, no turning back

The course is laid under our feet
No place to run, no time for retreat

I looked and looked, but couldn't find myself on google.

I want you to like me
I'm on an ego trip with low self esteem
When I look in the mirror, do I like what I see?
I do these things for you
I looked and looked, but couldn't find myself on google.
I want to put my best foot forward, but I have hideous toe nails
